General Federation Of Women's Club (GFWC)

"Living the Volunteer Spirit"

- ✚ GFWC is one of the largest and oldest (1890) international women's volunteer service organizations.
- ✚ GFWC is dedicated to community improvement by enhancing the lives of others.
- ✚ GFWC is credited with forming 75% of the country's public libraries.
- ✚ GFWC is responsible for developing kindergartens in public schools.
- ✚ GFWC advanced the Pure Food and Drug Act.
- ✚ GFWC initiated the "Safety for Older Americans" program.
- ✚ GFWC raises a yearly average of $30 million on behalf of more than 150,000 projects and logs more than 6 million volunteer hours.
- ✚ GFWC programs encompass major women's issues: health, literacy and equality, to mention a few.
- ✚ GFWC members work in their own communities to support the arts, preserve natural resources, advance education, promote healthy lifestyles, and encourage civic involvement.
- ✚ GFWC's local clubs are encouraged to address the interests and needs of their own communities.
