

Upper Allen Woman's Club
General Meeting Programs - 2021-2022 Club Year

September 20, 2021 – Sandy Hauenstein, President GFWC-PA & Getting Organized Meeting

Sandy Hauenstein, President of GFWC-PA, will talk about the Braille Project & upcoming GFWC-PA events. Committee organization and distribution of yearbook materials will take place.

October 18, 2021 – Jean Foschi, Cumberland County Commissioner

County Commissioner, Jean Foschi, will speak about the Human Services available in Cumberland County, including mental health/IDD, addiction care, children and youth.

November 15, 2021 – 6:30 pm - Kathy Bittenbender

Relax and enjoy the melodic tones of bells as demonstrated by Kathy Bittenbender, a former music teacher and bell choir director since 1989. Club members will help produce the sounds of Christmas music by playing these bells.

December 13, 2021 – Seasons Music by Mary-Kate S. Lee

Seasonal music presented by award winning harpist Mary-Kate Lee.

January 17, 2022 – Darlene Murray

Learn about the interesting life Susan B. Anthony, a suffragette, as portrayed by Darlene Murray. Darlene makes her costumes for the 23 impersonations she performs from memory.

February 21, 2022 – Misty Simon, local author

Misty Simon loves to read. She enjoys a good story and decided one day to try her hand at writing. Misty is the author of the Tallie Graver Mystery series. She is a long-time resident of Mechanicsburg and lives with her husband, daughter, and two "insane" dogs.

March 21, 2022 – Patty Noggle

Noggle's Sweet Meadow. Patty will speak about her business and provide Spring planting tips.

April 18, 2022 – Joe and Shanna from Talking Breads

Talking Breads is an on farm bakery and flour mill located in Mechanicsburg. They offer European breads, baked goods, fresh pressed juices and coffee. Dairy, fruits, veggies, flowers, charcuterie, deli items, meats, eggs and more!

May 16, 2022 – Year-end Banquet